Sportsmanship, Discipline and the fundamentals of how to play baseball.

- 1) Nobody is permitted to stand in the painted designated area behind the backstop; it is the coach's responsibility to inform players and fans of this rule. A warning will be issued to both teams the 1st time then you may be asked to leave the premises if the warning is ignored.
- 2) The umpire's word is FINAL on any ruling on the field. No arguing by any coach, player or fan will be tolerated. Failure to comply with this rule may result in ejection from the game and/or remove from the premises. If the infraction involves a player or coach the P.A.L. Officer may determine that the player or coach involved be no longer be allowed to participate in the P.A.L. program.
- 3) Good sportsmanship is expected at all times by coaches, players, and fans.
 - 4) Each team will be allowed to use 9 players in the field; a 4th outfielder will not be permitted in this league. Every player MUST play at least one inning (batting and fielding).
- 5) You must start the game with a minimum of 6 players for the game to be official.
 - 6) Pitchers will pitch from a distance of 50 feet. NO intentional walks are permitted.
 - 7) Pitchers may pitch 2 consecutive innings. Once a pitcher has been pulled he may not be put back in the game at the pitchers position the rest of the game.
 - 8) Baulks will be called on pitchers by the umpire if the pitcher move is illegal.
 - 9) Softball bats are not permitted to be used; the umpire will check bats.
- 10) Each team may bat 10 batters each inning.
- 11) Leadoffs are not permitted at anytime.
- 12) Once the ball has crossed the plate a runner may steal.
- 13) Stealing of home is not permitted. A runner on 3rd may only come home on a walk or a hit. They may not score on an overthrow or pass ball.
- 14) If the 3rd strike is dropped by the catcher the batter must be tagged or thrown out at 1st base unless the batter gives them self up by walking back to the bench. Rule does not apply if 1st base is occupied by a runner.
- 15) A ball hit over the fence in fair territory will be deemed a homerun once the batter has ran and touched all bases including home plate.
